What will be covered in the program?

Please see the detailed curriculum handout for detailed learning objectives. Centre Consultants and experienced leadership from the Region will present in the program.

How much does it cost?

$2,799 includes eight days of classroom sessions, 360-degree assessment, coaching session, support with capstone project, breakfast and lunch each day, graduation certificate, and a peer network to last a lifetime!

Who should attend? And, why?

Employees in high level management or leadership roles who want to take their skills and impact to the next level and influence outcome-based community results. Ideally graduates of the Management Academy or equivalent leadership development program.

How is this program different from the Supervisor or Management Academies?

The Supervisor Academy is intended for first-line supervisors looking to gain skills. The Management Academy takes this learning to the next level and encourages systems thinking and theoretical application. The Leadership Academy builds on this learning to have real impact in the community!

“Leadership is not about a title...it’s about impact, influence, and inspiration. Impact involves getting results, influence is about spreading the passion you have for your work, and you have to inspire teammates and customers.”

-Robin Sharma
